Good News

by Kathleen McKenna

It was sunny and dry when I set out with the walking group. Four miles into our eight-mile hike the heavens opened and it rained the rest of the day. My waterproof anorak I'd left at home—my hands had been too full of snacks and drinks to juggle more—nothing I could do about it now! No matter how long we have forgotten God and left Him out of our lives, there is something to do about it right now—I can invite Him into my life—now is always the time to get right with God. He is only a prayer away, and those who come to Him, He welcomes. John 6:37, "I will never reject them." "I will never drive [them] away."
"Then the Lord will create a shelter and shade from the heat of the day, and a refuge and hiding place from the storm and rain." Isaiah 4: 5-6 Father God, "I long to take refuge in the shelter of Your wings". (Psalm 61:4) Amen.
